

CAMERINO SUPPIEJ

STUDIO LEGALE

Avv. Sergio Camerino

e- mail: camerino@suppiej.it

pec: sergio.camerino@venezia.pecavvocati.it

Sergio Camerino was born in Venice in 1934, where he is registered to the Roll of Solicitors, he is a lawyer since 1960 and he can appear in the Court of Cassation since 1975. He has gained considerable experience over the years in the various branches of the civil and commercial law, is an expert, among other matters, of corporate, industrial, banking, bankruptcy, real estate and inheritance law.

He is president and a member of the board of directors of several companies and institutions of national relevance. He has published several books and articles not only in legal matters, and over the years he has chaired numerous arbitration which were entrusted with the solution of difficult legal issues particularly important and complex. Among particularly interesting specialized subjects he is an expert of liability of financial intermediaries and banks in the management of equity and debt securities, as he successfully promoted about four hundred civil litigation in the matter.

He is a founding member of the Law Firm Camerino Suppiej, where he has planning and coordination functions.

He is fluent in English and French.